February 14, 2023

GOVERNANCE IN THE EDUCATION SECTOR

Marion Thomson Howell
PRESIDENT, SHAUGHNESSYHOWELL INC.

In addition to being a leader in corporate learning and development, Marion has extensive experience in board governance and organizational leadership. She was elected as a trustee for the Waterloo Catholic District School Board in both the 2003 and 2006 elections, serving as Vice Chair and Chair of the Board. She served in same roles on the Board of Governors for St. Jerome's University and is currently the Chair of the Board of Trustees for St. Mary's General Hospital in Kitchener. She is also a founding director for A Better Tent City Waterloo Region an organization that provides safe shelter and support for those who are experiencing homelessness.

As a member of the St. Jerome's board, Marion chaired a task force that proposed establishing a system of bicameral governance for the university resulting in the first senate-like body in the university's history.

As a consultant, Marion's work with not-for-profit boards ranges from workshops on governance in general and what directors need to be aware of to be effective stewards of their organizations to work that targets each organization's specific needs such as updating policies, ensuring effective monitoring of the organization's work and building relationships among board members. She presented a workshop entitled, Implementing Policy Governance, One Step at a Time, at the International Policy Governance Association (IPGA) conference in Las Vegas. She has been a part of the OESC (Ontario Education Services Corporation) team since 2011, has worked with multiple school boards across the province as well as the Ontario Ministry of Education on issues related to board governance.

It is imperative that the Trustees act, and be seen to act, in the best interests of the public they serve. Catholic Trustees are elected to represent all stakeholders in the Board by articulating and supporting a shared commitment to excellence in Catholic education that promotes student achievement and well-being through the delivery of effective and appropriate education programs, services and effective stewardship of the Board's resources.

Trustees are not permitted to vote on or attempt in any way, whether before, during or after the meeting, to influence the voting on matters in which they have a direct or indirect pecuniary interest. Pursuant to section 3 of the Municipal Conflict of Interest Act, the direct or indirect pecuniary interest of a parent, spouse or child of the Trustee is deemed to be the interest of the Trustee.

Trustees who disclose a pecuniary interest in accordance with the Municipal Conflict of Interest Act will be required to file a written statement with the Director of Education declaring their interest and including a description of its general nature. Pursuant to section 6.1 of that Act, the Board will be required to maintain a registry that may be accessed by members of the public, containing copies of (i) Trustees' written statements declaring their interest; and (ii) corresponding meeting minutes. The Board will develop and maintain procedures for public access to the registry, including any reasonable limits on such access.

General Conflicts of Interest

Generally, where a Trustee, either on their own behalf or while acting for, by, with or through another, identifies a direct, indirect, or deemed conflict of interest in any matter and is present at a meeting of the Board at which the matter is the subject of consideration, the Trustee shall:

- Prior to any consideration of the matter of the meeting, disclose the interest and the general nature thereof;
- Not take part in the discussion of, or vote on any question in respect of the matter;
- Not discuss the issue with any other person;
- Not attempt in any way whether before, during or after the meeting to influence the voting on such question; and
- Where the meeting is not open to the public, the Trustee shall, in addition to complying with the requirements outlined above, leave the meeting or the part of the meeting during which the matter is under consideration.

Where the interest of the Trustee has not been disclosed by reason of the Trustee's absence from the meeting, the Trustee shall disclose the interest and otherwise comply with the above requirements at the first meeting of the Board attended by the Trustee, after the meeting referred to above.

When the meeting is open to the public, every declaration of interest and the general nature of that interest shall be recorded in the minutes of the Board meeting. When the meeting is not open to the public, every declaration of interest, but not the general nature of that interest, shall be recorded in the minutes of the next meeting of the Board that is open to the public.

It is an expectation of the Board that Trustees will comply with the provisions of the Municipal Conflict of Interest Act and avoid conflicts of interest as set out in this Code of Conduct.

Every Trustee is responsible and accountable for exercising good judgment and avoiding situations that might present a conflict of interest or the appearance of a conflict of interest and, where a conflict of interest might exist, each Trustee has an affirmative duty to disclose such conflict when it becomes apparent.

No Trustee shall use their position, authority or influence for personal, financial or material gain or personal business purposes or for the personal, financial or material gain or business purposes of a relative, friend and/or business associate. A Trustee must not participate in any decision or recommendation in which they or a relative, friend or business associate may have a financial, commercial or business interest.

LOBBYING

On occasion, lobbyists may attempt to communicate with Trustees for the purpose of influencing Trustees with respect to the procurement of goods and services and the awarding of contracts. Trustees must report such inquiries to the Director of Education forthwith. Trustees must not use their influence to gain or advance the interest of any particular party during a procurement process.

CONFIDENTIALITY

All Trustees acknowledge that, as part of their duties to the Board they may be privy to private, confidential and/or legally privileged financial, business and/or commercial information belonging to the Board that may provide a financial, business, commercial or competitive advantage, and that they may be privy to private and confidential student and personnel information, and/or legal matters and opinions. The confidentiality of personal/educational student and family information received in the course of duties must be respected, protected and kept confidential. Trustees are required to keep all information received, including but not limited to, in-camera discussions and actions in complete confidence. A Trustee's duty of confidentiality with respect to private and confidential financial, business and/or commercial information, personnel information, student information, and legal matters and opinions survives their term as Trustee.

BOARD RESOURCES

No Trustee shall use Board resources for personal gain. No Trustee shall permit relatives, friends and/or business associates to use Board resources for personal gain. Trustees recognize that such inappropriate use of Board resources, directly or indirectly, for their benefit may constitute a breach of trust contrary to section 122 of the Criminal Code and this Code of Conduct.

All Trustees shall fully comply with all Board Policies, Protocols, Procedures and Administrative Procedures regarding the use of Board resources, including information technology resources.

PROCEDURES FOR GIFTS AND HOSPITALITY

Although moderate hospitality is an accepted courtesy in business relationships, Trustees should not allow themselves to reach a perceived position whereby they might influence a Board decision as a consequence of accepting such hospitality. If there is uncertainty regarding what is considered an appropriate honoraria or hospitality to give or receive, the Trustee should discuss this with the Chair of the Board.

Trustees should not use their position for improper gain or benefit, nor under any circumstances accept gifts.

Gifts and donations, by any Trustee, to any groups or individuals will not be reimbursed.

Gifts and donations may be made on behalf of the Board of Trustees as a whole, if approved in advance by the Chair of the Board and the Director of Education.

ENFORCEMENT OF CODE OF CONDUCT AND MUNICIPAL CONFLICT OF INTEREST ACT

An alleged breach of this Code of Conduct by a Trustee may be dealt with by the following procedures:

Pursuant to section 218.3 of the Education Act, a Trustee who has reasonable grounds to believe that a Trustee(s) has breached this Code of Conduct may bring the alleged breach, in writing, to the attention of the Board through the Chair of the Board, or the Vice-Chair, in the event that the alleged breach is with the Chair of the Board or the Chair of the Board is unavailable.

Informal Process

The Chair of the Board or Vice-chair if the alleged breach is with the Chair on their initiative, or at the request of a Trustee of the Board who alleges a breach of the Code has occurred, may meet informally with a Trustee of the Board who is alleged to have breached the Code. This meeting may include the Chair and all Trustees involved, the purpose of the meeting is to bring the allegation of the breach to the attention of the Trustee and to discuss remedial measures to resolve the concern. This Informal Process is conducted in private. The Chair of the Board may invite the Director of Education to attend the meeting.

Formal Process

If a Trustee has reasonable grounds to believe that another Trustee has breached this Code of Conduct, they must bring the alleged breach forward as soon as reasonably possible. The Board may choose not to deal with an alleged breach should the alleged breach come to the Board's attention after: (a) one year after the incident to which the alleged breach relates; or (b) if there are a series of incidents, after one year after the last in the series. A Trustee may apply to the Board for an extension of this time limit, and the Board may grant such an extension if the Board is satisfied that the delay in bringing the alleged breach forward was incurred in good faith and no substantial prejudice will result to any person affected by the delay.

If an alleged breach is brought to the attention of the Board, the Board shall make inquiries into the matter. the document setting out the breach together with any other materials will be provided to the Director of Education in the Director's role as Secretary to the Board. The Director of Education will place the matter in the Trustee and Director Only section of the next In-Camera Board Meeting.

At the In-Camera Board Meeting where the alleged breach of the Code of Conduct is presented, legal counsel to the Board will be present to advise the Board with respect to legal matters related to relevant legislation and the Code of Conduct process as set out in the Code of Conduct. In compliance with Sections 198 and 283.1 of the Education Act, for the Board to meet, the Director of Education will be present as Secretary to the Board to take minutes. All other staff who attend meetings of the Board will be excused from the Trustee and Director Only section of the In-Camera portion of the meeting of the Board where the Code of Conduct complaint is presented.

At the In-Camera meeting of the Board at which the alleged breach is presented, the Board will direct Board legal counsel to oversee an independent investigation conducted by an external investigator as selected by Board legal counsel. The results of the external investigation will be presented to the Board by Board legal counsel and the external investigator upon completion.

Based on the results of the external investigation, the Board will determine whether the Trustee has breached the Code of Conduct.

The findings of the external investigation report shall be added to the minutes of the public portion of the meeting where the decision was made.

If the Board determines that a Trustee has not breached the Code of Conduct, the Board may impose sanctions or consequences on the relevant individual(s), which includes a Trustee or Trustees, who have brought the complaint forward. The sanctions or consequences will be determined in consultation with Board legal counsel.

If the Board determines that a Trustee has breached the Code of Conduct, the Board may impose one or more of the following sanctions:

- Censure of the Trustee.
- Barring the Trustee from attending all or part of a meeting of the Board or a meeting of a committee of the Board.
- Barring the Trustee from sitting on one or more committees of the Board, for the period of time specified by the Board.

In appropriate circumstances, the Board may also resolve to disassociate the Board from any action or statement of a Trustee.

If a Board determines that a Trustee has breached this Code of Conduct, the Board shall give the Trustee written notice of the determination and of any sanction imposed by the Board.

The notice shall inform the Trustee that they may make written submissions to the Board in respect of the determination or sanction by the date specified in the notice, which date will be at least 14 days after the notice is received by the Trustee.

The Board shall consider any written submissions made by the Trustee and shall confirm or revoke the determination within 14 days after the Trustee's submissions are received.

If the Board revokes a determination that a Trustee has breached this Code of Conduct, any sanction imposed by the Board is also revoked.

If the Board confirms a determination that a Trustee has breached this Code of Conduct, the Board shall, within 14 days after the Trustee's submissions were received, confirm, vary or revoke the sanction(s) imposed by the Board.

If a sanction is varied or revoked by the Board, the variation or revocation shall be deemed to be effective as of the date the original determination of the alleged breach was made by the Board.

Despite subsection 207(1) of the Education Act which requires meetings of the Board to be open to the public, but subject to the requirements below for specific resolutions of the Board to be made in public, the Board may close to the public the part of the meeting during which a breach or alleged breach of this Code of Conduct is considered when the breach or alleged breach involves any of the following matters:

When a resolution listed above is passed, the resolution shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting. The Statutory Powers Procedure Act does not apply to any of the enforcement provisions under section 218.3 of the Education Act.

Nothing in this Code of Conduct prevents a Trustee's breach of the Municipal Conflict of Interest Act from being dealt with in accordance with that Act.

A Trustee who is subject to a Board inquiry to determine whether the Trustee has breached the Code of Conduct has a right to retain and be represented by legal counsel throughout the process.

In the event that a Trustee has been found to have not breached the Code of Conduct, all legal expenses for the Trustee involved in a Code of Conduct complaint will be reimbursed by the Board.

REPORT TO THE COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE FEBRUARY 14, 2023

“I AM A CHILD OF GOD” SOCIAL-EMOTIONAL LEARNING PROGRAM

BACKGROUND INFORMATION

The “I Am a Child of God” social-emotional learning program was developed as a tier 1 response to the social-emotional learning needs of students K-8 across the Niagara Catholic District School Board through the lens of our faith.

The “I Am a Child of God” program not only aligns with Niagara Catholic’s vision, mission and values, it also aligns directly with our Mental Health and Well-Being Strategy, and it forms the foundation of the Student Support Integrated Behaviour Team model. The program was co-created in 2016 based on data received from the EDI (Early Development Instrument).

“I Am a Child of God” is rooted in the Catholic School Graduate Expectations, the latest research in neuroscience and child brain development, School Mental Health Ontario and the Faith and Wellness document. The program has since evolved and grown through ongoing multi-disciplinary collaboration and research and is now being rolled out system wide to all elementary schools with training opportunities for Child and Youth Workers, Educational Resource Teachers and Educational Assistants to build system capacity.

It is the core belief that through faith and ongoing coaching and modelling of social-emotional learning, children will learn how to co-regulate, identify their thoughts and feelings and respond to those thoughts and feelings with targeted tools, strategies and faith. While self-regulation involves children identifying thoughts and feelings and responding with tools and strategies, co-regulation recognized the co-journey of the child with a caring Catholic educator who coaches and models with them the tools and strategies to respond to big emotions. Co-regulation empowers all Catholic educators to model Christ’s journey of accompaniment that He offers each one of us with unconditional love and non-judgement. Co-regulation, when framed in our faith and gospel values, has the potential to be transformational for staff and students across Niagara Catholic.

The intention of the rollout of “I Am a Child of God” is to reach the desk of every staff member and child across Niagara Catholic with our shared vision “encountering souls and opening minds so that all students can succeed”. It is our intentional effort as a system to accompany every child along their Road to Emmaus so that they may have a true encounter with Christ as they work towards achieving their full potential.

The “I Am a Child of God” Social-Emotional Learning Program report is presented for information.
