REPORT TO THE BOARD MAY 28, 2024

RESEARCH COLLABORATIONS IN THE NIAGARA CATHOLIC DISTRICT SCHOOL BOARD 2023-2024

---

---

BACKGROUND INFORMATION

The Niagara Catholic District School Board supports research collaborations that align with the priorities of the 2021-2026 Strategic Plan, Listening, Learning and Leading.

Research collaborations provide professional learning opportunities for staff, while engaging students and families, on topics such as student achievement, school climate, and student mental health and well-being.

Research projects are supported by system and school administrators and staff through their collaboration with community and post-secondary researchers, including Niagara Catholic staff who are pursuing additional educational credentials.

Through their participation Niagara Catholic staff gain valuable insights and new perspectives to support promising practices to improve student outcomes and support for families and the broader community.

The Research Ethics Review Committee reviews applications for educational research projects in accordance with the Niagara Catholic District School Board Administrative Operational Procedures: Education Research (800.5).

The Research Ethics Review Committee 2023-2024:

- Lee Ann Forsyth-Sells, Superintendent of Education
- Anthony Corapi, Coordinator, Staff Development
- Adele Filice, Secondary Principal
- Lisa Incaviglia, Elementary Principal
- Christopher Moscato, Elementary Principal
- Diane Pizale, Elementary Principal
- Tara Vinc, Elementary Vice-Principal

The current and ongoing research collaborations for 2023-2024 are included in this report.

RESEARCH COLLABORATIONS 2023-2024

Research Project	Partners	Description	Timelines
Healthy Heart Schools' Program	Heart Niagara	This project investigates the risk of premature cardiovascular disease and diabetes in young people. The research component provides heart health assessments. The program component includes experiential learning for specific grades in both elementary and secondary schools, such as learning about Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation (CPR) and Automated External Defibrillator (AED).	Winter 2011 and ongoing
The COMPASS Study	University of Waterloo	This study includes an annual survey for secondary school students to better understand how to effectively improve their health behaviours. Eight secondary schools review results included in their annual School Health Profiles to inform school climate and student health initiatives.	Fall 2012 and ongoing
Brock Healthy Youth Project – A Longitudinal Study	Brock University	This research provides a comprehensive study of youth lifestyle choices and experiences. The study uses student surveys and mobile lab data to examine how interactions among personality, activities, physical health, brain development, environmental factors and genetic and hormonal information might impact lifestyle choices involving risk and positive choices. The study began in two Families of Schools and is currently inviting all grades 9 to 12 students to participate in the two high schools.	November 2016 to June 2024
Adolescent Social Relationships	Brock and Queen's University	This longitudinal study seeks to understand how children and adolescents, from junior grades to high school, can learn to use prosocial strategies, such as cooperation and leadership skills, instead of coercive strategies like bullying, to achieve key social and personal goals. The study is taking place in one Family of Schools.	March 2019 to Spring 2024
Improving engagement and inclusive pedagogy with high school music education	McGill University	The purpose of this study is to investigate how high-school music teachers can use pedagogical strategies to support increased engagement throughout both grade 9 courses, and upper-year electives. This research aims to highlight methods of engagement in the hopes of supporting higher rates of enrolment throughout high school music programs, particularly in closing the enrolment gap between grade 9 music courses and grade 10 and up.	Fall 2023 Spring 2024
Mentalization, Identity and Well-Being in Adolescents: Role of Kindness	Brock University	This study will explore if the preference for solitude and perceptions of kindness changes with age and gender, together with related psychosocial benefits such as higher levels of mentalizing, self-awareness, and well-being.	Fall 2023-24 to Fall 2024-25

Danny DiLorenzo, chair
Port Colborne/Fort Erie/Wainfleet Trustee
Niagara Catholic District School Board
427 Rice Rd., Welland L3C 7C1

Dear Mr. DiLorenzo,

Thank you for your kind words regarding the Port Colborne community and the future of economic development in Niagara.

On behalf of Mayor Steele, please accept my apology for creating a feeling of hurt and disappointment among the staff, students, and trustees of Lakeshore Catholic High School.

Niagara Centre MP Vance Badawey and François-Philippe Champagne, Canada's Minister of Innovation, Science, and Industry of Canada, visited students and teachers of The Broken Spoke program at Port Colborne High School the morning of Tuesday, May 14.

At the conclusion of the tour, Minister Champagne invited four students and three faculty to attend the midday announcement event. They were not on the Prime Minister's original guest list, to which the mayor's office was not privy until mid-morning that day.

We respect the relationship the City and Lakeshore Catholic have built together, and we will continue to include and support the school whenever possible.

Thank you for understanding.

Yours truly,

Gail Todd
